AMENDED IN SENATE MAY 24, 2002

Senate Constitutional Amendment

No. 9

Introduced by Senator Speier

February 21, 2002

Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 9—A resolution to propose to the people of the State of California an amendment to the Constitution of the State, by amending ~~paragraph~~ subdivision (g) of Section 2 of Article XIII A thereof, relating to taxation.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SCA 9, as amended, Speier. Property taxation: changes in ownership: exclusion: ~~cohabitants~~ coowners.

Existing provisions of the California Constitution, with certain exceptions, place a limitation on ad valorem taxes on real property of 1% of the full cash value of that property. For purposes of this limitation, full cash value is defined as the assessor's valuation of real property as shown on the 1975–76 tax bill under “full cash value” or, thereafter, the appraised value of that real property when purchased, newly constructed, or a change in ownership has occurred after the 1975 assessment. The California Constitution excludes certain transfers of real property between spouses from classification as a “purchase” or “change in ownership” requiring reappraisal of the subject property for tax purposes.

This measure would authorize the board of supervisors of a county to adopt an ordinance to exclude a transfer made on or after January 1, 2005, between cohabitants of a personal residence, from classification as a “purchase” or “change in ownership,” ~~if the cohabitants coowned~~

~~and resided in the personal residence the transfer of an ownership interest in a principal residence located within that county between coowners of that residence, if those parties coowned and continuously resided in the residence for a period of 5 3 years before immediately preceding the transfer and the transfer is made either occurs, on or after January 1, 2005, by reason of the death of the transferor or by a transferor who has been certified to have a terminal illness or terminal disease, as defined.~~

Vote: ²/₃. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes. State-mandated local program: no.
